This two-day course is open to anyone who plays a brass or percussion instrument, is from age 8 - 18 years old, and identifies as female or non-binary. Expect a fun and interactive course that celebrates playing large and shiny instruments!

The course is being led by brass and percussion tutors who are leaders within the profession, including percussionists Kyomi Seed and Alice Angliss, trumpeters Katie Smith and Kaitlin Wilde, and French horn player Zoë Tweed.

Travel bursaries are available for participants coming from outside of London and home counties. Get in touch with us at largeandshiny@gmail.com

There are limited spaces allocated on a first come first serve basis.
